D. Waiver of Liability

Under Louisiana law, a farm animal activity sponsor or farm animal professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in a farm animal activity resulting from the inherent risks of the farm animal activity, Pursuant to R.S.9.2795.1.

"Inherent risks of farm animal activities" means those dangers or conditions which are an integral part of a farm animal activity, including but not limited to:

- (a) The propensity of a farm animal to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm, or death to persons on or around them.
- (b) The unpredictability of a farm animal's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement, and unfamiliar objects, persons, or other animals.
- (c) Certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions.
- (d) Collisions with other farm animals or objects.
- (e) The potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the farm animal or not acting within his ability.
